Begin Pluto in Capricorn with Guidance and Intention

Let us help You Achieve your Goals of Material and Spiritual Prosperity

Fellow Astrologers and Fellow Students of Astrology,

This three-day weekend retreat at a secluded valley in majestic Sedona takes place less than one week after Pluto enters Capricorn, and within one day of a Venus-Jupiter conjunction in Capricorn, opening up a very special opportunity for us to begin a new phase of our professional lives with greater achievement and follow-through. The Venus-Jupiter conjunction is exactly conjoined with Steven's Jupiter and exactly trine to Moses's Venus. Translation: it's the perfect time for them to share their combined abundance of experience with you and assist you in developing a flourishing practice and even greater proficiency as an astrologer.

Steven Forrest is one of the world's most successful and best-selling astrologers with a packed full-time practice and ten month waiting list, a busy lecturing schedule, and a teacher with active apprenticeship programs. Moses Siregar III is a gifted full-time locational and holistic astrologer with thirteen years of professional experience, is proficient in both western and vedic astrologies, and an expert in using the internet to grow an astrological career. This meeting brings together two of the most passionate minds in the world of astrology. It also brings together a voice from the Pluto in Leo generation and one from the Pluto in Libra generation, sharing and learning from each other. Their intent is to generously empower you with some of the most useful, practical, client-centered astrological secrets available anywhere, and to spice the stew with some entrepreneurial insights about how to make a living as an astrologer.

Pluto in Capricorn will soon be here, marking a powerful new phase in our lives with the potential to bring out the best of our career possibilities. For the sixteen years Pluto will spend in Capricorn, one choice is clear: either rise to the occasion and leave your most positive mark on the world, or fail to show up. Show up and let Steven and Moses help you take advantage of this dramatic new beginning by starting off on the right foot to realize your full potential.

Sincerely,
Moses and Steven

The cost for the retreat is $297, however early registration discounts will be available if you act soon. The cost for food and shared lodging for three days at the beautiful AngelValley.org is approx. $384
